CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Confidential information includes, without limitation, business plans, client information, employee and candidate information, project documents, product plans, designs, software code, credentials, financial information, pricing, proposals, processes, research, internal communications, operational data, technical material, personal data, vendor information, documentation, and any information marked or reasonably understood to be confidential, proprietary, restricted, or sensitive.

OBLIGATIONS OF THE ASSOCIATE

- Use confidential information only for authorized work assigned by LUMENTIX SOLUTIONS PRIVATE LIMITED.
- Do not copy, publish, disclose, transmit, store externally, upload, or share confidential information without written authorization.
- Protect credentials, documents, files, devices, systems, repositories, and communication channels from unauthorized access or misuse.

- Immediately report any suspected loss, leak, unauthorized access, policy breach, phishing incident, or misuse of confidential information.
- Comply with instructions issued by the company regarding data handling, device security, access control, retention, deletion, and information security.
- Return or delete company information when requested or when the engagement ends, and complete access removal or handover confirmations as instructed.

EXCLUSIONS

Confidentiality obligations do not apply to information that is publicly available without breach of this agreement, independently developed without use of company confidential information, or lawfully received from a third party without restriction. The burden of proving an exclusion rests with the person claiming it.

RETURN, DESTRUCTION AND ACCESS REMOVAL

Upon request or at the end of the engagement, you must return, delete, or securely destroy all company information, documents, files, notes, credentials, copies, devices, and materials in your possession or control. You must also complete any access removal, handover, asset return, confirmation, or audit step requested by the company.

SURVIVAL OF OBLIGATIONS

These confidentiality obligations continue during and after the engagement. Nothing in this agreement grants ownership rights, license rights, or permission to use company intellectual property except as strictly required for authorized company work.
